1. Why did you choose to bring your students to visit The House of the Seven Gables?
2. In what ways do you feel that this visit will be an enriching experience for your students?
3. Why is The House of the Seven Gables an attractive choice of field trip to students and teachers?
4. What do you hope your students will take away from this experience?

5. How do you plan to connect your visit to The House of the Seven Gables back to the classroom? Have you planned any pre-/post assessment activities? If so, please describe.

6. Have your students read any of Hawthorne's novels/writings? If so, which ones?

7. Are you tying this visit to your History or English curriculum? Or to both? Do you have an American Studies Program at your school?

8. Have you brought students to The House of the Seven Gables before? Do you plan on bringing students back next year? If "yes," why? What other sites (of historical significance or not) do you visit in Salem?

9. What is the grade and academic level (i.e. AP, Honors, College Prep, etc.) of your students?

10. Where are you from (School, City, and State)? How have the funds for this trip been acquired?
