DISCOVER A HISTORICAL TREASURE
Our 2 1/2 acre National Historic Landmark District includes:
• Carefully preserved 17th- and 18th-century period homes.
• Three-season Colonial Revival Gardens.
• Breathtaking views of Salem Harbor, Derby Wharf, and the tall ship Friendship.

Enjoy The House of the Seven Gables, properly known as the Turner-Ingersoll Mansion (1668), featuring:
• A professional 30-40 minute tour about the prosperity, philanthropy and history of the 350 year old house.
• The famous Secret Staircase that guests can climb!

Explore Nathaniel Hawthorne’s Birthplace (c.1750):
• Learn about the famous author of The Scarlet Letter and The House of the Seven Gables.
• Examine items owned by Hawthorne and his family.
• See furnished examples of mid-18th century rooms.

Shop The Museum Store located in the historic Retire Beckett House (1655).
• Located in the oldest building on the property.
• Stocked with exclusive items, unique gifts, books and souvenirs.

ACCESSIBILITY/LIMITED MOBILITY
Due to the nature of their historic architecture The House of the Seven Gables, the Nathaniel Hawthorne Birthplace, and the Hooper-Hathaway House are not wheelchair accessible. Our Visitor Center and restrooms, Colonial Revival Gardens, museum grounds and a portion of the museum store are wheelchair accessible.

Tours and performances last approximately 30-40 minutes and take place on multiple levels in our 17th- and 18th-century houses. Visitors are standing, walking, or climbing stairs during these experiences. Information is available about the rooms for those that cannot access any portion of the tour.

POST-COVID ANTICIPATED VISITOR EXPERIENCE
We look forward to welcoming your group travelers back to The House of the Seven Gables in 2021 and beyond. Please note:
• We are accepting bookings for April 1, 2021 and beyond.
• We will offer no-penalty cancelations for tour operators for COVID-19 related issues through at least December 31, 2021. Cancelations must be made within one week of the scheduled arrival or a cancelation fee may apply.
• We follow our state and local guidelines in terms of sanitation and standards. Appropriate information will be communicated with your company. All of your travelers will need to comply with necessary guidelines to be granted admission.
• Make sure that we have up-to-date contact information for your company so that we can proactively communicate issues or itinerary changes.
• We strongly advise checking in with our group travel staff before you depart.
